The Chair in Mennonite Studies hosts:

Mennonite Hosts and Refugee Newcomers: A 25 Year Retrospective

A weekend conference, September 30 and October 1, 2005
University of Winnipeg, Eckhart Gramatte Hall

Sponsored by: the Mennonite Historical Society of Canada
(Divergent Voices of Mennonites in Canada Project)
and Mennonite Central Committee Canada

In 1979 and 1980 thousands of Southeast Asia refugees, escaping the ravages of the Vietnam War, came to Canada. Many of these newcomers were hosted by Canadian Mennonites, creating new relationships and changing the nature of the Canadian Mennonite churches. Twenty-five years after this moment in history, this conference will analyze, evaluate, reflect and celebrate. The conference will feature presentations from scholars, hosts, and newcomers.

Friday, September 30

Fri, a.m.	Concepts and Background
Fri, p.m.	The British Columbia Story
Fri, p.m.	The Alberta and Saskatchewan Stories
