

MCC at 100:

Mennonites, Service, and the Humanitarian Impulse

Hosted by the Centre for Transnational Mennonite Studies

September 30–October 2, 2021

Convocation Hall
The University of Winnipeg

In 1920 North American Mennonites formed Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) to aid famine-ravaged Mennonite communities in the Soviet Union (Ukraine). Over the ensuing century, MCC has grown to embrace service in over 60 countries. It has brought together a wide variety of church groups and been a force for global ecumenical and interfaith partnerships. This centennial conference reflects on the Mennonites' response to the biblical call to love one's neighbour through practical acts of service.

Thursday, September 30 (1:00 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.)

MCC in the 1920s and 1930s

MCC–Indigenous Relations

Friday, October 1 (8:30 a.m. – 9:30 p.m.)

Refugees, Material Aid, Education, Health

Agriculture and Religion in Global Context

MCC as Incubator and Catalyst (Evening session at CMU)

Saturday, October 2 (8:30 a.m. – 6:30 p.m.)

MCC, Peacebuilding, and Identity Formation

Service, Mission, Partnership

Media of MCC Representation

For more information visit

<https://mennonitestudies.uwinnipeg.ca/events/>