We are pleased to announce two important forthcoming books:

Harry Loewen, ed., Why I am a Mennonite. Personal Essays on Mennonite Identity (Scottsdale, Pa./Kitchener, Ont.: Herald Press, 1988).

In this book thirty Canadian, German and U.S. Mennonites from all walks of life tell their personal stories around the theme, "Why I am a Mennonite."

James Urry, A History of the Mennonites in Russia (tentative title), (Winnipeg: Hyperion Press, 1988).

This is the first comprehensive new history of the Russian Mennonites since P. M. Friesen's monumental work (1911).
