

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

Centre for Transnational Mennonite Studies

The Centre for Transnational Mennonite Studies is a partnership between the Chair in Mennonite Studies and the D. F. Plett Historical Research Foundation. It is a new research and education initiative at The University of Winnipeg that brings a global focus to Mennonite Studies and introduces new courses, research initiatives, lecture series, and scholarly exchanges among Mennonites across cultural and national borders. The Centre provides researchers with research and funding opportunities.

Visiting, Graduate, and Post-Graduate Fellowships $3,000—$35,000

MA, PhD, and Postdoctoral Fellowships available in Canadian or US history with a thesis on a topic related to Mennonite history

Major funding provided by:
D. F. PLETT HISTORICAL RESEARCH FOUNDATION, INC.
Executive Director: Aileen Friesen

Undergraduate Major or Minor

The University of Winnipeg offers a dedicated program in Mennonite Studies. A Major or Minor in Mennonite Studies is an excellent way to learn about a historic people's commitment to non-violence, community action, spirituality, and religion. It can provide a useful preparation for a wide variety of fields including journalism, social work, pastoral service, law, and conflict resolution.

For more information on these programs, contact:
Ben Nobbs-Thiessen, Chair in Mennonite Studies
b.nobbs-thiessen@uwinnipeg.ca