

In Memoriam

The passing of John Schroeder on September 21 of 1996 is noted with particular regret by the editors and board of the Journal of Mennonite Studies and the Mennonite Chair at the University of Winnipeg. For many years John Schroeder was a stalwart patron of educational and cultural endeavors and his support helped many of these to succeed. As a businessman he was that exception who did not draw attention to his generosity, but put the resources of Assiniboine Travel Inc. to use in supporting conferences, colloquia and the publication of the Journal. John's interest in things Mennonite and his friendly companionship will be missed by many.
