Harold S. Bender
1897-1962

Albert N. Keim

Harold S. Bender, famous for his influential Anabaptist Vision, devoted much of his life and energy to the care and direction of Mennonite institutions. He provided leadership to Mennonite World Conference, Mennonite Central Committee, Goshen Biblical Seminary, and other church organizations. With Bender's guidance these institutions became modernizing agents, helping Mennonites navigate the unsettling changes they encountered in the 20th century.

Studies in Women and Religion series, Volume 5

How do our social, political and religious commitments influence our interpretation of biblical texts? Are obedience and suspicion necessarily opposite ways to respond to the authority of the Bible? Can one criticize and be transformed at the same time? Based on sound scholarship, Obedience, Suspicion and the Gospel of Mark: A Mennonite-Feminist Exploration of Biblical Authority invites readers to reflect on some significant questions regarding theological assumptions, methodologies and implications.

Mennonites In The Soviet Inferno

Harvey L. Dyck and Anne J. Konrad, editors,

A multi-authored book serving as a tribute to the Mennonite victims of the suffering and death in the Soviet Union. The volume is part of an international remembrance scheduled for 1998, the 60th anniversary of the worst year of the Soviet terror, 1938. The book is pioneering in its scholarship, comprehensively telling the story of individual, family and community suffering in a narrative history addressed to a popular audience. Events are set carefully within their larger international and Soviet contexts.

Chapters by: Harvey L. Dyck, Marlene Epp, Terry Martin, Colin Neufeldt, Peter Letkemann, John B. Toews, Walter Sawatsky.
