Menno Simons College

an inter-Mennonite College affiliated with The University of Winnipeg, offers undergraduate programmes in:

International Development Studies (IDS)

From local community to global society

—IDS challenges students to explore the causes and consequences of processes that promote some individuals, communities and nations, and exclude others.

Conflict Resolution Studies (CRS)

Developing Relationships and Preventing Violence

— CRS seeks to understand the nature and dynamics of human conflict, and to look at appropriate alternatives for dealing with conflict in ways which develop healthy relationships and prevent violence.

CALL FOR PAPERS

THE RETURN OF THE KANADIER MENNONITES: A HISTORY OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND CHALLENGES

An academic conference examining the history of the immigration and integration of Kanadier Mennonites from Paraguay, Mexico and other Latin American countries into Canada will be held in Winnipeg in October 2002.

The conference will pay special attention to the accomplishments of these Mennonite immigrants and the challenges they faced as they integrated into Canada. While the conference will hear about the Mennonite migrants who left Canada for Latin America during the 1920s and 1940s, the main focus will be on the return of their descendants between 1960 and 2000. The conference will feature papers on Kanadier immigrant communities in Ontario, Manitoba, Alberta, Nova Scotia, British Columbia and Saskatchewan.

Among the issues that will be examined are the following: 1) community formation, 2) work and economics, 3) gender and family relations, 4) health, 5) inter-group relations, 6) education; 7) religious teaching, 8) relations with government, 9) migration and diasporic culture, 10) transplanted Latino and Low German cultures.

The organizing committee welcomes paper proposals in the length of 100 words. They should be mailed to either: Ken Reddig, Mennonite Central Committee, Plaza Drive, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to Royden Loewen, Chair in Mennonite Studies, University of Winnipeg, Winnipeg, Manitoba, R3B 2E9.

The location of the conference will be in Winnipeg; an announcement of the exact location will be forthcoming. The dates of the conference are Friday, October 4 and Saturday, October 5, 2002.

The conference is sponsored by the Mennonite Historical Society of Canada, Chair in Mennonite Studies (U of Winnipeg), Mennonite Central Committee, and Canadian Mennonite University
